Some of the responsibilities for room parents throughout the year include: trivia night silent auction items, dinner auction items, class parties, teacher birthdays, and secret santa around Christmas. If you choose to sign up as a room parent, you will receive more detailed information regarding these responsibilities. A sign up genius will be posted on the ICS Parents & Friends Facebook page on Friday, August 27th to sign up for spots along with a sign up for other Parents & Friends committees. YOUNG AUTHORS: It's that time again! Turn in date for the fall Young Authors contest will be Monday, September 27st.

Guidelines: Please do not write your name on your story, instead use a post-it note or attach your name on a separate piece of paper with a paperclip. The emphasis of the Young Authors program is on creativity! A parent volunteer will judge your work based on its originality, its organization (does your story have a beginning, middle, and ending?), and on its use of clear, descriptive words. Stories are evaluated based 75% on creativity and 25% on grammar and punctuation. Does your story create a picture for your reader? Does it take them on a journey? You may also enter a poem. Students in grades 5 through 8 may also enter non-fiction essays including classroom assignments. Judges will be looking for clear, descriptive sentences and well-organized paragraphs. Any submission may be written at home or as part of a classroom assignment. Please do not submit work that has been entered in the Young Authors competition in a previous year. Young Authors is designed to encourage the student to write, however a parent can help with proofreading grammar, punctuation, and spelling. Very young authors may tell their story to a parent while the parent writes/types the story. It is important that the story be "in the child's own words," which is the state rule for the Young Authors program. Parents should encourage their children to work on their submissions as independently as possible.

Students in grades K-4 receive their Young Authors' awards at presentations following each judging. Older students receive theirs at the Awards Night in May. All winners from fall and spring are entered into a drawing, and one randomly selected student from each grade will be invited to attend the regional Young Authors' Conference.

QUOTES OF THE WEEK: On Wednesday (the day after I sent out the message regarding the vaccine/test mandate) a 5th grader asked me, "Is it fun being a principal?"

One of the staff members helped out in the cafeteria one day handing out the milk. Her 3 yr old went home and told his dad, "Mom is the milk lady." (I think he was very proud of his mother.)

PRAYER LIST: Diane Corzine, Meghan Frierdich, Mike Conrad, Peg Aasheim, all those serving in the military
