Bienvenido el parrochia!

V. 46 #23

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Friends,

Next Wednesday we will celebrate the dedication of our Church. 1-27-13 We will also kick off our Parish 175th anniversary! How about a DRESS UP DAY as we celebrate all of the Churches we attend? About 7% of our students are Christians of other traditions. Our students hail from 13 zip codes, several of which border on the Columbia School District. One of our teachers was discussing our Christian traditions in her cohort. I go to St. Paul UCC. I go to Christ Community. I go to First Baptist. And one said "I am Republican". Belongers are believers! As we are all united under Christ we celebrate their Church communities too! All-School Mass, live streamed on Wednesday!

YOUNG AUTHORS TURN-IN It's that time again! Turn in date for the spring Young Authors contest will be Wednesday, February 17th. This will also be the jeans day for students turning in a story. We will again need parent volunteers for judging. Please contact Susie Funk at medic4837@gmail.com if you'd like to be a judge this year. Guidelines: Please do not write your name on your story, instead use a post-it note or attach your name on a separate piece of paper with a paperclip. The emphasis of the Young Authors program is on creativity! A parent volunteer will judge your work based on its originality, its organization (does your story have a beginning, middle, and ending?), and on its use of clear, descriptive words. Stories are evaluated based 75% on creativity and 25% on grammar and punctuation. You may also enter a poem. Students in grades 5 through 8 may also enter nonfiction essays including classroom assignments. Judges will be looking for clear, descriptive sentences and well-organized paragraphs. Any submission may be written at home or as part of a classroom assignment. Please do not submit work that has been entered in the Young Authors competition in a previous year. Young Authors is designed to encourage the student to write, however a parent can help with proofreading grammar, punctuation, and spelling. Very young authors may tell their story to a parent while the parent writes/types the story. It is important that the story be "in the child's own words," which is the state rule for the Young Authors program. Parents should encourage their children to work on their submissions as independently as possible. Thanks to Susie Funk for chairing and all our judges! This is one of our best endeavors and Parents make it possible!

PROBLEMS OR OPPORTUNITIES? We are running into a few discipline issues and much needed “grade-turnarounds” lately. These are opportunities for growth and not to be looked on as a total negative. “It’s okay to make mistakes. That’s the way we learn” has to be our philosophy. Students mess up. Learn from it. And make “never again” the mantra. If kids were perfect, we wouldn’t have a school. Lead them to Christ. Check out Philippians 4.

Monroe County Electric Cooperative awarded Immaculate Conception School of Columbia a Touchstone Energy School Empowerment Grant for $500 towards the purchase of chrome books for its technology program. Sue Lewis wrote the grant. ICS is grateful for their generosity over the years which has added up to thousands of dollars towards innovation, school needs, and empowerment!

CATHOLIC SCHOOLS WEEK January 31-February--- Check out the calendar and let's celebrate!

A BIT OF HISTORY: The first 100 days in office have been a marker for Presidents since FDR. Today's news is filled with a flurry of executive orders, which allow for quick action by a president and skirts legislation and the length of time it takes to pass it. The Emancipation Proclamation was an executive order, subject to a call back by the next president with the stroke of a pen. Thus Lincoln committed to the passage of the 13th Amendment after his Proclamation. It was ratified in December of 1865.

President	Executive Orders	years on office
Franlin Delano Roosevelt	3500	12+
Bill Clinton	364	8
George W. Bush	291	8
Barack Obama	276	8
Donald Trump	210	4

PICTURE THE MUSIC is in its 31st year of inspiring artwork from public, private, parochial, and homeschools in Missouri and Illinois. This cross-curricular art competition invites students to discover an orchestral work and create a painting or drawing that express the creative thought or emotion inspired by the music. Produced by The St. Louis Symphony Orchestra, this year's selection is by Florence Beatrice Price(1887-1953) from Little Rock, Arkansas. At the age of 14, Florence graduated high school as the valedictorian of her class. She then attended the New England Conservatory of Music in Boston, where she earned her degrees in piano and composition. She later composed her Symphony in E minor at the Chicago Symphony Orchestra in 1927. Students listened to her Symphony No. 1 in E minor, "Juba Dance", and colored or drew images inspired by the emotion and feel of the music. This was an integration of music, visual art and history presented to 5th and 6th grades. 7 pieces were selected that best expressed the feel of the music and were finished for competition. Both submissions and the Awards Ceremony will be entirely virtual.

Last season 66 schools and more than 12,200 students participated. 407 submissions were received, and from this group 100 finalists representing 42 schools were selected. Awards for the top 100 finalists were presented at a ceremony on stage at Powell Hall on March 4, 2020. Immaculate Conception School had three students in the top 100 last season, Paul Ott, Karina Jerkatis and Genevieve Nadziejko were presented their awards at the ceremony at Powell Hall. You can view their work at Picture the Music(SIso) online.

This year our competitors are Claire Wachtel, "Moving Along", Lucas Sheehan, "Trumpet Man", Avery Melliere, "The Dance", Sloan Wilson, "Into the Storm", Will Wittenauer, "Rushing Water", Grace Jansen, "Circus Sensation", and Maria Hake, "March of the Ants". Good Luck to our competitors and check out their work, it is amazing and a wonderful experience for our students. We wait to hear the results!

TIME-TIME-TIME Jonah, Paul, and Mark speak to time this weekend. "In 40 days, Nineveh will be destroyed." Time is running out...". The time of fulfillment is at hand." As Dylan sang, "The times are they are a'changing". They are always changing. We live on borrowed time. In the seminary, we started our night prayers in Chapel with "Another day has passed, never to return". Reflecting on the past day can help you live a better one the next day if you take the time. Time is about priorities. Time is about balance in our lives. Time is about finding some for God. Tune in or come to the Altar this weekend. It's time! Make time!

Ps VALENTINE COVID LIMITATIONS Let's run this like Halloween. St. Valentine's Day is on a Sunday. Valentine's should be brought in early to sit before being handed out the Friday before. Snacks should only be pre-packaged---and not too much! Many of our students are already so sweet they drip sugar!

The Manner of Serving Mass

P. Priest. In Nómine Patrís et Filii et Spiritus Sancti. Amen.

While the Priest is saying, "In nomine Patrís et Filii et Spiritus Sancti" he makes the sign of the cross; the Server, kneeling on the floor, should do likewise; he then joins his hands before his breast and answers the prayers as follows:

P. Priest. Intróibo ad altáre Dei.

S. Server. Ad Deum qui lætificat juventutem meam.

* P. Júdica me, Deus, et discérne causam meam de gente non sancta; ab hómine iniquo et doloso érue me.

S. Quia tu es, Deus, fortitúdo mea: quare me repulisti, et quare tristis incédo dum affigit me inimicus?

P. Emítte lucem tuam et veritátem tuam: ipsa me deduxérunt et adduxérunt in montem sanctum tuum et in tabernácula tua.

S. Et introibo ad altare Dei; ad Deum qui lætificat juventutem meam.

P. Confitebor tibi in cithara, Deus, Deus meus: quare tristis es ánima mea et quare contúrbas me?

S. Spera in Deo, quóniam adhuc confitebor illi; salutáre vultus mei, et Deus meus.

P. Glória Patri, et Filio, et Spíritui Sancto.

While the Priest says, "Gloria Patri," etc., the Server should bow his head.

S. Sicut erat in principio et nunc et semper, et in sæcula sæculórum. Amen.

P. Introibo ad altáre Dei.

S. Ad Deum qui lætificat juventutem meam.

* P. Adjutórium nostrum in nómine Dómini.

While the Priest is saying, "Adjutórium nostrum in nómine Dómini" he makes the sign of the cross; the Server should do likewise.

S. Qui fecit cælum et terram.

AT THE CONFITEOR.

P. Confiteor Deo, etc.

S. Misereátur tui omnipotens Deus; et dimissis peccátiis tuis, perdúcat te ad vitam ætérnam.

P. Amen.

The Server does not bow his head while the Priest says the Confiteor; he kneels erect until the Priest has finished. Then turning towards him he says, "Misereátur tui omnipotens Deus, etc. Then bowing profoundly towards the altar the Server says "Confiteor Deo, etc.

S. Confiteor Deo omnipoténti, beatæ Mariæ semper Virgini, beato Michaéli Archángelo, beato Joánni Baptista, sanctis Apóstolis Petro et Paulo, ómnibus Sanctis et tibi, Pater (Here turn your head toward the Priest, and then go on), quia peccávi nimis cogitátione, verbo, et ópere (Here strike your breast three times), mea culpa, mea culpa, mea máxima culpa. Ideo precor beatissimam Mariam semper Virginem, beatissimum Michaélem Archángelum, beatum Joánnem Baptistam, sanctos Apóstolos Petrum et Paulum, omnes Sanctos, et te, Pater (Here again turn toward the Priest), oráre pro me ad Dóminum Deum nostrum.

P. Misereátur vestri, etc.

When the Server has finished the Confiteor the Priest says "Misereátur vestri omnipotens Deus et dimissis peccátiis vestris, perducet vos ad vitam ætérnam." The Server answers "Amen" and kneels upright.

S. Amen.

* P. Indulgéntiam, absolutiónem, etc.

The Priest says "Indulgéntiam, absolutiónem et remissiónem peccatórum nostrórum, tribuat nobis omnipotens et misericors Dóminus." The Priest makes the sign of the cross while saying these words and Server does likewise.

S. Amen.

Bow your head moderately during the following.

P. Deus, tu convérsus vivificábis nos.

S. Et plebs tua lætábitur in te.

P. Osténde nobis, Dómine, misericórdiam tuam.

S. Et salutáre tuum da nobis.

P. Dómine exáudi oratióem meam.

S. Et clamor meus ad te véniat.

* P. Dóminus vobiscum.

S. Et cum spíritu tuo.

Here you rise to kneel on the lowest step of the altar, as the Priest goes up to the altar.

After the Introit; the Priest returns to the middle of the altar and says:

* The matter from hereon to the next asterisk is omitted in Masses for the dead.

No Altar Boy should be allowed to serve Mass until he has learned these responses by heart, which should, as far as possible, be made in the same tone as that used by the Priest. The Server should avoid all haste in pronouncing the words; should not begin before the Priest has finished his prayers, nor delay to begin when he has finished.

Pronounce A (ah). Pronounce E (ay). Pronounce Kyrie Elé-ison.
