"We are people of joy"

March 6, 2015

V. 40 #39

Dear Parent, Guardian, Student, Teacher, Friend,

THIRD SUNDAY OF LENT If you are too busy to study Scripture, you are too busy! Scripture is one of the ways we connect with our God. As a parent, your duty is to teach the Commandments. Rules help you raise your children and make your life easier too... "Honor your father and your mother, that you may have a long life in the land." The first 3 Commandments are about our relationship with God and the next 7 about getting along with others. Thanks for the Book of Exodus! Without rules we have anarchy.

Psalm 19 reminds us of the power of Scripture. Mr. Riley's Religion Class wrote acrostics and generated a prayer book for their parents. Here, used with permission, is Kalia Jerkatis acrostic:

Psalm of Praise with an Acrostic Display
The Goodness of Our God

God is our omnipotent Teacher,
Our guide who leads us
Down the path of righteousness.

In the path of our holy
Savior, who opened the gates of heaven we praise.

Goodness flows from his heart, and
Out of his lips comes the truth,
Our Lord lets us repent and He
Delivers us from the evil of Satan

Arise and pray in the wake of God,
Leave the evil and sing His word.
Let those who do wrong to you be forgiven.

The evildoers that face you, know not what they do.
Help the poor and the crippled
Everyone is in need of something

The Lord will forgive if you do, too
In heaven you are free of sin
Make His word holy to you, and
Everywhere you go, praise His goodness

Jesus in the Gospel of John 2, 13-25, reminds us about why we have houses of prayer. The Temple had been turned into a place to make money. People are still climbing on Mt. Calvary for gold, using religion as a way to get rich or expound their singular causes to which my mentor Fr. Ed Hustedde would say "that's not the Gospel". Jesus had his moment of justified anger. How can we pay attention to this in our world?

DISCERNMENT Have you heard we are embarking on the journey of building a new educational center? Is this you? Please come Sunday at 2:00 and become informed about our latest venture in building the kingdom of God here in Columbia.

BUILDING THE CHURCH OF THE FUTURE...

It is a very exciting time to be part of the Immaculate Conception Parish. Our new campus has afforded us so many new opportunities to build our faith and share it with others in the form of spiritual concerts, fellowship gatherings, and a Catholic Revival. The Father Steve Memorial Library is breathtaking; it offers a place for quiet study that is spiritually inspiring. Our beautiful new church is the result of the collaborative efforts of so many parishioners who have shared their time, talent and treasure and we have built a more robust Church because of it. It is important to not lose momentum and continue to look to the future, and prepare for a time when we will be able to build a Catholic Education and Activities Center to further nourish generations of believers. The Pastoral Council is planning another parish wide process of discernment to select a new building committee to lead us through our next building phase. This next building phase will be to create a new space for our: Parish Catholic School (ICS), Parish School of Religion (PSR), Sunday School program for preschool children ("Little Church"), Youth Ministry program (ICY), and a variety of other parish ministries, events and activities. This Catholic Education and Activities Center will enable us to continue to share the gift of our faith with our children, who are the Church of the Future! On Sunday, March 8, at 2:00 p.m. in the ICS cafeteria, the Parish Pastoral Council will host an informational meeting for everyone who is interested in being a member of this new building committee. I hope to see you there!

~Margaret Raisch, President, Pastoral Council

YOU LEAVE TOWN FOR A FEW DAYS AND LOOK WHAT HAPPENS! Congratulations Ms. Tiffany Green on your marriage to Mike Taylor last Saturday. We now call her Mrs. T! All the best as your new life together takes flight!(Mike is a pilot with Delta!) God's blessing on your marriage!

DC---Where it all began for us---Gettysburg. The Class of 2015 at the marker for the Illinois 8th Cavalry who fired the first shots at the Battle of Gettysburg. We walked up the road to Little Round Top due to the snow that started falling just as we got to Gettysburg. And then to Mass at the National Shrine of the Immaculate Conception---we were met by former Associate pastor Fr. Eric Wagner, C.R. who is working on his Ph.D. in Scripture at CUA. We had front row seats and were acknowledged as guests from the pulpit! Enlarge and find Fr. Eric!

We had some small cancellations due to the weather but subbed in activities and stayed busy all the time. We saw Newt Gingrich at the Shrine, John Boehner walked through our group at Statuary Hall in the Capitol, and just missed getting "Netanyahued" there. We visited the Pentagon 911 Memorial for the first time and met up with Uncle Brian Gibson and best friend Rob too. It took 21 1/2 hours to get home and learned hard a real time bus safety drill while stranded on I-64 in Kentucky during the storm named THOR. The class of 2015 is just that---Class! They rolled with every little adjustment and made lots of wonderful memories. Thanks be to God for a safe trip, for avoiding the worst of the weather, and for the prayerful experience we had in our nation's capital. Thanks to our chaperons Lizanne Young, Heather Garcia, Cyra Herrmann, MaryBeth Babcock, Ellen Sippel, Zaida Rose, Jim Stearns, John Adams, Mark Swindle, Mike Gibson, Ron Graff, Jim Spurgeon, and Mike Weiler. From Ms. Tara Kennedy: I am not sure if you have heard, but the Sean and Andrea Drury family lost their house and all of their belongings in a house fire. They are related to Emma and Joseph Tyler. It would be their aunt, uncle, and two cousins. I am not sure if there is anything we can do, but if anything at least keep them in our prayers...and maybe hit the website and help. Thanks!

WELL WORTH A SECOND READ...Fr. Carl's Little Reservoir...

A good friend of mine, Jim Crouner of Carbondale, died on February 16 at the age of 91. He once asked me, "What was the happiest moment of your life?" As I was giving it some thought, he went on to say that when we're asked, "What was the saddest moment of your life?" most people give a ready answer, but when we're asked about the happiest moment of our life, it takes most of us a while to respond.

It was certainly true for me. Of course, his point was that we too often focus upon the negative things rather than the positive things in life.

I've never forgotten that life lesson he taught me. Certainly, life is filled with ups and downs for us all, but life is good when we have a grateful heart and recognize the blessings God showers down upon us all each day. As I enjoy the autumn days of my life, I find myself beginning each new day with the simple prayer, "Thank you, Lord, for another new day!" During these days of our Lenten prayer, fasting and almsgiving, let us "Thank God for all that we have, and trust God for all that we need!" Let God help you make today the happiest day of your life! ~Fr. Carl

The Father's House from White House Retreats...

"Jesus made a whip out of cords and drove them all out of the temple area, with the sheep and oxen, and spilled the coins of the money changers and overturned their tables, and to those who sold doves he said, 'Take these out of here, and stop making my Father's house a marketplace.'" Jn 2:15-16

The Jewish Temple authorities cooperated with their Roman oppressors and perverted the purpose and experience of entering God's dwelling among them. It had been a house of prayer where His children could again experience His love for them and the sinner know His compassion and forgiveness. Now it had become a place to barter and haggle, to cheat and extort, especially from the poor. Love and mercy now had a high price. Jesus knew that his Father's generosity had no limit, no price tag. His words and actions will be authenticated in his resurrection.

We are now the Father's house, His dwelling among us. We are already living His gift of eternal life. Do I put a price on my love and forgiveness for others? Especially my spouse, my children, friends and co-workers? What do I expect or even demand in return? Or do I freely share what the Father has lavished on me? During this Lent can I at least have a marked-down clearance sale?
