BUILDING THE DOMESTIC CHURCH: The Family Fully Alive reminds us the theme for July is WITNESSING TO THE FAITH.

"Because families play an indispensable role in the new evangelization, we want to share our faith with other families and those who are far away from God."

What stands out this month in reading from the booklet is from the questions:

“what truths might we express through an effective method of arguing?”

Here is a video you can watch with your family: <https://youtu.be/bydSRRqwBcE>

BUILDING OUR CATHOLIC EDUCATION AND ACTIVITY CENTER PRAYER

Merciful God, you are the Divine Builder, who calls us to build your Church. Guide us in building our new Catholic Education & Activity Center, so that we can build the Church of the future by passing on the treasure of our faith to future generations. Bless the work of our hands, and keep us strong in faith, hope and love, so that all we do might bring glory and honor to you, forever and ever. AMEN.

SCRIPTURE FOR THE WORKAHOLIC Mark wrote the first Gospel and the shortest one. This Sunday Scripture reminds us that we need to rest. “Wanna get away?” should be “need to get away” just like Jesus did. Jesus takes the Apostles to a quiet place to rest. Good luck Jesus. Crowds followed. We can be like “sheep without a shepherd” but we won’t do well if we make our life about nothing but work. As I age, I seem to be getting worse. I keep telling myself “I am 69”, so I don’t have to work like when I was 40. This is a good time of year for a Festivus Party. I am going to one this Saturday and can’t wait for the “Feats of Strength”, “Airing of Grievances”, and Festivus Miracle. Sarcasm can sometimes be a joy and helps us be brutally honest with the fact that we keep so busy because we don’t think we are enough just as we are. Sheep are basically lost creatures by nature. They need a shepherd because they are so vulnerable to predators, to noxious plants like nightshade, to copperhead snakes, to birthing, and to unfenced pastures. They are looking for a hand-out and the love of a shepherd. Sounds like us, doesn’t it?

Come to the Table this Sunday and “waste” some time with Jesus! He will give us rest!
