THE JOY OF LOVE

Dear Parent, Guardian, Student, Teacher, Friend,

MEET THE TEACHER NIGHT It is hard to describe how proud I felt last night with the great turn-out, the people I get to work with and Who I get to work for. I have one of those blessed jobs in life where everyday is full of mystery (what's going to happen next?), suspense (you fell off of what?), and joy (look at this grade and you thought you were struggling!). And then comes all those "God-winks" where students are kind to each other, parents are fundraising in honor of their late 2 year old sister, and a student in her school uniform gets her Mom's gas paid by a complete stranger who thanks her for what she is doing and becoming. Thanks be to God for last night---for this day—for this year! Like Mary, like Blessed Mother Theresa, we say Mother -a lifelong yes and the embrace of Jesus to the world. We may not have a joyful willingness to do even the most humble work for the poor and dying, but we can each do something and the real uniform people will recognize is our Christianity. Wear it proudly!

Volunteers are needed to set-up for the Labor Day Picnic(700 needed) and volunteers are needed to help Laura and Dan Whelan run our Field Day next Friday. Picnic set-up is a lot less work than Field Day if you are protecting your health! Please sign up for both if you can. We will be setting up Thursday, Friday, and Saturday for the Picnic and it is the largest fundraiser for the parish. All profit goes to the parish and the biggest profit is working together!

Then the door was locked. We rejoice in the Lord's generosity, mercy and compassion, but we cannot forget that in this life there are deadlines. Our earthly existence will come to an end. One day the Lord will call for each of us, whether we're prepared or not. It's foolish to think that we can set the terms, the day or the hour. It's imprudent to put off repentance. It's irrational to rely on others to make up for our lack of planning. It's reckless to ignore all of the signs, admonitions and opportunities already before us, urging us to get ready. It's idiotic to risk getting shut out of the glorious feast that awaits us because of laziness, impatience, procrastination, misguided priorities or any other silly excuse. Lord, help me to grow in wisdom. Patricia Russell

SOCIAL LADDERS I always tell our students that if they were paying for their education, they would sit in front and try to get the most out of it. This Sunday's Gospel is all about where you get to sit at the high society feast of the year. There are many times I like to be invisible when I go out and I have also had to sit at a dais and have every mouthful watched. Jesus reminds us of humility this Sunday. Our humble God really knows how to put us in our place when we need it and yet I find many high-performing disciples in our who deserve a real pat on the back and get little recognition and that's the way we like it. We have many "un-ordained" men and women here that I look up to as fellow travelers on the journey. I would believe that upon close examination, we would all find people we know who fit this title in our lives! Come to the Feast this weekend but don't sit in the back---it is too crowded--- and if the collection basket isn't full yet, you are supposed to "top it off"!

Sincerely,

Mike Kish, Principal

PS Happy Birthday Maren Donjon on 8/24! We hope the day was a thrill a minute!

Our Building a Catholic Education and Activity Center Prayer:

Merciful God, you are the Divine Builder, who calls us to build your Church.

Guide us in building our new Catholic Education & Activity Center, so that we can build the Church of the future by passing on the treasure of our faith to future generations. Bless the work of our hands, and keep us strong in faith, hope and love, so that all we do might bring glory and honor to you, forever and ever. AMEN

Ave Maria

Dios te salve, Maria. Llena eres de gracia: El Señor es contigo.
Bendita tú eres entre todas las mujeres. Y bendito es el fruto de tu vientre: Jesús.
Santa María, Madre de Dios, ruega por nosotros pecadores, ahora y en la hora de nuestra muerte. Amén.

Paul Harvey Writes: I Hope You

We tried so hard to make things better for our kids that we made them worse. For my grandchildren, I'd like better. I'd really like for them to know about hand-me-down clothes and homemade ice cream and leftover meatloaf sandwiches. I really would.

I hope you learn humility by being humiliated, and that you learn honesty by being cheated. I hope you learn to make your own bed and mow the lawn and wash the car. And I really hope nobody gives you a brand new car when you are sixteen.

It will be good if at least one time you can see puppies born and your dog put to sleep.

I hope you get a black eye fighting for something you believe in.

I hope you have to share a bedroom with your younger brother. And it's all right if you have to draw a line down the middle of the room, but when he wants to crawl under the covers with you because he's scared, I hope you let him.

When you want to see a movie and your little brother wants to tag along, I hope you'll let him.

I hope you have to walk uphill to school with your friend and that you live in a town where you can do it safely.

On rainy days when you have to catch a ride, I hope you don't ask your driver to drop you two blocks away so you won't be seen riding with someone as uncool as your Mom.

If you want a slingshot, I hope your Dad teaches you how to make one instead of buying one.

I hope you learn to dig in the dirt and read books. When you learn to use computers, I hope you also learn to add and subtract in your head.

I hope you get teased by your friends when you have your first crush on a girl, and when you talk back to your mother that you learn what Ivory soap tastes like.

May you skin your knee climbing a mountain, burn your hand on a stove and stick your tongue on a frozen flagpole.

I don't care if you try a beer once, but I hope you don't like it.

And if a friend offers you dope or a joint, I hope you realize he is not your friend.

I sure hope you make time to sit on a porch with your Grandpa and go fishing with your Uncle.

May you feel sorrow at a funeral and joy during the holidays.

I hope your mother punishes you when you throw a baseball through your neighbor's window and that she hugs you and kisses you at Christmastime when you give her a plaster mold of your hand.

These things I wish for you tough times and disappointment, hard work and happiness.

To me, it's the only way to appreciate life.

Written with a pen. Sealed with a kiss. Paul Harvey .. Good
