Bienvenido el parrochia!

V. 43 #14

Dear Parent, Guardian, Student, Teacher, Friend,

Fr. Chris Rueter, OFM will be honored with the Micah Award at the UCM Banquet on November 3. He is being honored for his tenacious work for criminal justice in Illinois government, for the love he demonstrates with his presence with people who are incarcerated, and his work to start Our Brother's Keeper. UCM is a faith-based community organizing group that is funded by the Catholic Campaign for Human Development. True to Fr. Chris's style, he said he would accept the award because he would do anything to bring attention to our terrible criminal justice system and that he would accept the award on behalf of all the people who work for this with him. Can you stand up with him?

JAMES AND THE GIANT PEACH Pride is one of the capital sins. I did a project on it during my Master's Program decades ago. I realized during that study that sometimes, we do the right thing out of pride. Theater is the right thing. We are so proud for all the right reasons. Thanks to cast and crew and everyone who did anything to make our play a "moment in time" and a memory we won't forget. Special thanks to the Class of '18 for leading the way for their younger cast members. $1000 was collected for Sr. Thea Bowman School during the intermission. Thanks for your generosity!

CONTRIBUTIONS REQUEST: NOT monetary, so please read on:

I am planning to making an ICS memory t-shirt quilt for the dinner auction and I'm hoping you might be able to help me out.

I am trying to get my hands on any kind of ICS t-shirt or polo shirt - school spirit, sports, academic, the arts - anything I can cut up. I can use fronts/ backs/ logos. I have more recent ones like the theme shirt (i.e. The Joy of Love and Fr. Car's birthday shirt) but I am looking for additional items - anything to do with ICS, present or past. I cannot stress enough that I can use just about anything! I will return items I cannot use, but please give with the knowledge that they could end up in a quilt. The size of the quilt will depend on how many items I can get my hands on. It could go as a silent auction item or a live auction item, again depending how it turns out - awesome, I hope, and the envy of many, so I can raise some $$$ for ICS!!

Please leave anything you are willing to contribute with Mrs. Epplin and I will get them from her. If you want anything back that I cannot use, put your name on it and I will make certain it is returned to you. I don't want to wait until the last minute, and we all know how time flies, so the sooner the better.

With many thanks, and for the benefit of ICS!

Jeanette Melliere (Grandma of the Melliere and McGill ICSers)

RENDER UNTO CAESAR....Most of this know this Gospel by heart yet we complain about death and taxes all the time. This is normal. We complain that these aren't the "good old days" too. What we have failed to do is find God in the moment no matter where we are at. Even in spitting in the face of death like Dan Whelan does every day. Take 3 deep breaths and please read this from Fr. Richard Rohr, OFM(Fr. Chris goes on retreat with him each year). It is DEEP. It is Teilhard de Chardin....let it in and find God in this moment, right now.

The haunting prayer woven into Teilhard's reflection on faith in The Divine Milieu makes clear that it is no cheap optimism he is dispensing here, but a wrenchingly honest acknowledgement of our human predicament and an unfailing fidelity to seeing God in every aspect of the earth, even in our human suffering: and so we pray...

Ah, you know it yourself, Lord, through having borne the anguish of it as a man: on certain days the world seems a terrifying thing: huge, blind, and brutal. . . . At any moment the vast and horrible thing may break in through the cracks—the thing which we try hard to forget is always there, separated from us by a flimsy partition: fire, pestilence, storms, earthquakes, or the unleashing of dark moral forces—these callously sweep away in one moment what we had laboriously built up and beautified with all our intelligence and all our love. Since my human dignity, O God, forbids me to close my eyes to this . . . teach me to adore it by seeing you concealed within it. [1]
