Merciful God, you are the Divine Builder, who calls us to build your Church. Guide us in building our new Catholic Education & Activity Center, so that we can build the Church of the future by passing on the treasure of our faith to future generations. Bless the work of our hands, and keep us strong in faith, hope and love, so that all we do might bring glory and honor to you, forever and ever. AMEN

Dear Parent, Guardian, Student, Teacher, Friend,

Our condolences to Allie Shuler(Jean, Jack, Samantha, Monica) on the loss of her Grandmother Barbara Thompson. She was always trying to live till the next family event and she made it to Christmas. This is a sad time but filled with hope as she has made her journey to embrace the Christ Mystery. Life is not a dead end. It is new birth! God's peace to her, her husband Ray, and all the family. She came to many ICS events over the years with us.

Barbara Ann (Koch) Thompson, 82, of Quincy, IL was entrusted to the care of our Lord at 10:30 a.m. on December 26, 2017 at her home surrounded by her family.

Once her children were raised, she continued her passion for nurturing children providing childcare services for 15 years. She enjoyed sewing, ballroom dancing, swimming, traveling, antiques, gardening, and reading. She graduated from Quincy Notre Dame (QND) High School in 1954. She has been a member of St. Anthony's Catholic Church since returning to Quincy in 2003.

She is survived by her husband Ray; her sisters: Anita Steinkamp, and Sister Barbara Rose Koch; five children: Theresa Wells (Gene) of Florence, SC, Michael Thompson (Melania) of O'Fallon, IL, Jean Shuler (Jack) of Columbia, IL, Lynn Dineen (Steve) of Little Rock, AR, and Jim Thompson (Michelle) of Quincy, IL; fourteen grandchildren: Holly North (Matt), Paul Wells (Maria), Corrie Thompson, Janna Bona (Chris), Gwynne Killen (Damien), Samantha Shuler, Monica Shuler, Allison Shuler, Kyle Dineen (Autumn Wilder), Sean Dineen, Brett Dineen, Zak Thompson, Chad Thompson, Mandy Thompson; and seven great grandchildren: Stella North, Elliot North, Thomas Wells, Henry Wells, Liam Bona, Rylin Killen, and Rainey Killen.

Young Authors---Spring 2018

Sharpen your pencils, for it is time to prepare for the Spring Young Authors' program!

The spring turn-in day will be Monday, January 29th. This will also be a jeans day for every student turning in a manuscript. Please give your submission to your teacher (5th-8th grade students please give your manuscript to your English teacher). For judging purposes, do not write your name on your story. We ask that you attach your name on separate piece of paper (with a paper clip or stapled), or on a Post-It note adhered to your manuscript. The chairperson will record the titles and names, and then remove the names from the stories before giving them to the judges. Winning stories will be presented at the school Young Authors' assembly on Thursday, March 1st. The following information may answer any questions you have. ? Please email Robin Nadziejko at icsyoungauthors@gmail.com. Thank you!

How should my work be packaged? Your submission should include the following:

- A front cover with the title of your manuscript (it can be a simple title page, with no name)
- Your name on a separate piece of paper attached by paper clip or stapled, or on Post-It note (names are removed for judging)
- Pages securely fastened by staple or other means

What should I write, and how will it be judged? The emphasis of the Young Authors program is on creativity. A parent volunteer will judge your work based on its originality, its organization (does your story have a beginning, middle, and ending?), and on its use of clear, descriptive words. Stories are evaluated based 75% on creativity and 25% on grammar and punctuation.

You may also enter a poem. It will be judged based on its creativity, how well it flows, and on the strength and clarity of its message. For upper grade students, a poem or collection of poems should have at least 20 lines total.

Any submission may be written at home or as part of a classroom assignment. Please do not submit work that has been entered in Young Authors competition in a previous year.

Can my parents help me? Young Authors is designed to encourage you to write, and so the work must be your own. You can try out your ideas on your parents if you like, and they can help you with proofreading grammar, punctuation and spelling. Very young authors may tell their story to a parent while the parent writes it down. The child may then write out the story, or the parent may write it or type it. It is important that the story be "in the child's own words," which is the state rule for the Young Authors program. Parents should encourage their children to work on submissions as independently as possible. What if I win? Congratulations! You may win a Young Authors' trophy once each school year. If you win a trophy, be sure to keep entering! Your future submissions are still eligible to win runner-up awards. By entering repeatedly, you are also eligible to receive special awards at the end of the year. Students in grade k-4 receive their Young Authors awards at presentations following each judging. Older students receive theirs at the Awards Night in May. Enter twice, and you receive a Young Authors' pin at the end of the year.

All winners from fall and spring are entered into a drawing, and one randomly selected student from each grade will be invited to attend the regional Monroe-Randolph County Young Authors' Conference. Thanks to Robin Nadjziejko for chairing one of our best programs!
