

Parent's Code of Ethics:

- A. Parents/fans and supporters of the parish athletic program do not use abusive language at the referees, players, coaches, or fans from either team.
- B. Parents/fans and supporters of the parish athletic team treat all student athletes, coaches, and officials with respect and refrain from criticizing officials during and after games.
- C. Parents/fans refrain from posting derogatory, discourteous, or disrespectful comments on social media.
- D. Parents/fans are reminded that their actions reflect on the reputation and good name of the Catholic school. Parents and Fans represent the Catholic community to those in attendance.
- E. The actions of parents and fans promote good sportsmanship among everyone present.
- F. There is a "24 Hour" cooling off period to diffuse potential problems between parents and coaches or officials.
- G. Parents are not to coach or criticize their child during the game.